“Lycon” Waxing is 100% natural and has a 50% reduction in the pain sensation normally felt with other waxing systems.

Oil is applied to the skin before application of the wax which significantly reduces the risk of skin damage, bruising and pain. “Lycon” wax is the strongest wax available due to its patent of a specific type of resin from Australian pine trees which is a natural extract, making it able to remove hairs as short as one millimetre, from the root.

It has a 4 to 6 week gap between hair regrowth and is 100% hygienic waxing system.
